

Language Centre Workshop

Everyday Idioms

Aims

- To widen students' knowledge of idiomatic English
- To encourage and enliven the use of idiomatic English

What does the idiom mean?

- Daughter: Could I have a party while you're gone?
Parent: That's out of the question.
A. No problem at all. OR
B. To be impossible.
- Patrick's telephone number is just on the tip of my tongue.
A. Close to being remembered or said. OR
B. Mentioned already
- Larry dropped Angela a line so that she would know where he moved.
A. To mail a letter (to Angela) OR
B. To draw a picture with lines to show where Larry moved.
- Look, it's already 6:00pm. Time to call it a day.
A. To phone somebody else OR
B. To stop working

(Join us and get the answers in the session)

More, More.....

rains cats and dogs / cut classes / teacher's pet / make oneself at home / cost an arm and a leg / break the ice / fix the meal.....

Date: 3/11/2016 (Thursday)
Time: 10:00-11:00 (Rm 527)
Tel. enquiry: 3653 6754 (Dr. Patrick Lee)

Organized by Language Centre

