Subject: Suspension of Classes and Postponement of Examinations After Chinese New Year Holidays

In light of the latest development of the Novel Coronavirus outbreak, classes at the campus will be suspended after the Chinese New Year holidays, and will resume on Monday, 17 February 2020. Examinations originally scheduled after the Chinese New Year holidays will be postponed. The Joint 2019 Graduation Ceremony of CIHE and CBCC, originally scheduled on 10 February 2020, will also be postponed. Detailed arrangements about examinations, online teaching and learning and make-up classes, as well as the necessary adjustments to the relevant activities and the academic calendar of the two institutes for the 2019-20 academic year will be announced in due course.

The campus of CIHE and CBCC will remain open. Apart from class suspension and postponement of examinations and graduation ceremony as mentioned above, at present all operations of the two institutes will remain normal.

Please stay vigilant and continue to follow strict hygiene practice and make your personal health a top priority.

Thank you for your kind attention.
